THE CHRISTMAS CARDINAL

Cardinals have a special significance which is why they are often seen on Christmas cards and ornaments and used as decorations on trees and wreaths. They are a symbol of faith and warmth. They also symbolize hope, joy, health, rejuvenation and celebration. Folklore says that placing a red cardinal upon your Christmas tree will bring you and your family good luck throughout the coming year!

President Theodore Roosevelt, an avowed environmentalist, banned Christmas trees from the White House during his presidency. The president was against real Christmas trees because he feared that Christmas trees would lead to deforestation.

As it turned out, the Roosevelts did have at least one tree, courtesy of their eight-year-old son Archie. On Christmas morning 1902, Archie surprised his family with a tree that he hid in a large closet!

LUCKY CHIMNEY SWEEP

Seeing a chimney sweep on the day of your wedding is good luck – but why? According to legend, in 1066, King William of Great Britain found himself in the way of an out-of-control carriage. A chimney sweep pushed him to safety. The King rewarded the chimney sweep by inviting him to his daughter’s wedding and making a decree that chimney sweeps should be regarded as symbols of good luck.
