THE CHRISTMAS CARDINAL

Cardinals have a special significance which is why they are often seen on Christmas cards and ornaments and used as decorations on trees and wreaths. They are a symbol of faith and warmth. They also symbolize hope, joy, health, rejuvenation, and celebration. Folklore says that placing a red cardinal upon your Christmas tree will bring you and your family good luck throughout the coming year!

FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS

December 19th is St. Lucia's Day – the festival of lights celebrated in Sweden, Norway, and the Swedish-speaking areas of Finland. St Lucia was a young Christian girl who was martyred in 304. Families observe St. Lucia's Day in their homes by having one of their daughters dress in white and serve coffee and baked goods to the other members of the family. The festival marks the beginning of the Christmas season in Scandinavia, and it is meant to bring hope and light during the darkest time of the year.

LUCKY CHIMNEY SWEEP

Seeing a chimney sweep on the day of your wedding is good luck – but why? According to legend, in 1066, King William of Great Britain found himself in the way of an out-of-control carriage. A chimney sweep pushed him to safety. The King rewarded the chimney sweep by inviting him to his daughter's wedding and making a decree that chimney sweeps should be regarded as symbols of good luck.

TWELVE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS – Celebrating one of the most famous Christmas songs of all time, "The Twelve Days of Christmas" Carolers each represent one of the gifts the singer receives from his "true love" in this traditional carol. First published in 1780, The Twelve Days of Christmas was originally sung by English school children during the time between Christmas Day and the beginning of Epiphany.
